

SPORTS STORIES SPACES
PART 002

JOSH VAN DER FLIER

“I know God gave me a gift and I honour that by playing to the best of my ability.’ I have always loved rugby and dreamed of being professional.

Before a game... and this can be in the dressing-room or the night before, or even on the pitch... I say a prayer. Sometimes I have prayed with my fiancée (now wife) before a match. It is not an exact prayer, but along the lines of thanking God for the opportunity... and to honour God in how I play and act.”
